Dear Prospective Student:

It is with great delight that I am able to introduce you to Sifu Yamel Torres. Sifu Torres has spent much of his life studying and teaching the Northern Shaolin Seven-Star Praying Mantis Style. He is devoted to propagating authentic Chinese martial arts to dedicated students of the next generation. He believes strongly in preserving traditional training methodologies and openly shares his tremendous skill and knowledge with those that work hard and practice consistently.

Sifu Torres creates a custom-tailored training program for each of his students so that an individual's weak points can be addressed and improved upon while at the same time developing and advancing strengths. This personal attention allows Sifu Torres to push each student to the limit so that the individual can flourish to his or her greatest potential.

Sifu Torres has been not only a teacher to me, but also a mentor. I initially turned to martial arts during a difficult period in my life. It is with his guidance, compassion and friendship that I was able to prevail over my predicament. Although my motivations for learning martial arts are constantly in flux, it is a tribute to the depth and richness of kung fu, and the inherent benefits that practicing can provide.

I hope you will make the effort to learn more about Sifu Torres, his school and the style. I welcome any questions you may have and hope you will benefit from studying kung fu as much as I have.

Sincerely,
